

Compensations for fare advantages in public transport

Published: 09.08.2020.

Within the framework of Social Security Network Strategy in 2010, caused losses regarding a certain passenger category (preschool children, orphans and children without parents, persons with disability group I and II, disabled children and individual escorting a person with disability group I or disabled child, politically repressed persons and participants of national resistance movement) are compensated to public transport service providers for transportation of mentioned category with 100% discount in public transport in regional, intercity and short-distance routes, as well as losses are covered to public transport service providers for transporting persons with disability group I, disabled children and individuals escorting persons with disability group I with 100% discount in municipalities of the Republic.

<https://www.lm.gov.lv/en/compensations-fare-advantages-public-transport>