The pilot project of the Ministry of Welfare and the Northern Council of Ministers: „Translation and publishing of the Danish children's books "Den Dag da Rikke var Rasmus" and "Den Dag Da Frederik var Frida" and the methodology brochure "Børnehaver med Plads til PippiPrinser og PiratPrinsesser"and the education for the personnel and parents of preschools regarding the promotion of equal opportunities for boys and girls ""(2012)

Project term: January - December 2012

Project activities: Within the project framework a task force was formed which adapted the Danish Methodology materials in compliance with the Latvian situation. It is planned to present the book and the methodology brochure to preschool education experts in seminars that are organised by the National Centre for Education.

In addition it is planned to educate teachers, methodology experts and parents for working with the book and promoting equal opportunities for boys and girls within a pilot project at a nursery school.
